Handbook of Workplace Assessment Wins
R. Wayne Pace Human Resource Development Book of the Year Award
Professional Practice Book Presents Guidelines for Selecting and Developing Organizational Talent

Darien, CT, April 21, 2011: APTMetrics announces the Handbook of Workplace Assessment: Evidence-Based Practices for Selecting and Developing Organizational Talent has been selected as the 2010 R. Wayne Pace Human Resource Development (HRD) Book of the Year award. The handbook is co-edited by Dr. John C. Scott, COO, APTMetrics, and Dr. Douglas Reynolds, V.P., Assessment Technology, Development Dimensions International. It is published through the Society of Industrial and Organizational Psychology (SIOP) and released through John Wiley and Sons, Inc.

The Handbook of Workplace Assessment leverages the thinking of a world-renowned group of authors to present cutting-edge theory and practice in the field of assessment. The R. Wayne Pace HRD Book of the Year Award is presented by the Academy of Human Resource Development for the outstanding book that advances the theory and/or practice of the profession. The handbook was also recently selected by the Cornell University Library as a “Book of the Month” feature.
